“ I didn't really know Kathy but I know the family having gone to school with Mary. May she find a tender resting place and God bless her and family. Prayers your way.

“ Marilyn Clossey and I had the opportunity recently to see Kathleen and Annie in Arizona, and we had a lot of wine reminiscing about all the great times growing up and our visits every Summer to Hazelcrest. Kathleen brought me a wooden spoon -- Aunt Joan would crack Kathleen with the wooden spoon for having a smart mouth, and giving her cousins a hard time. We had some great laughs and I named all the neighbors which Kathleen couldn't believe! I shall never forget those special times " I love you Papoose". Mark Clossey :)
